

Ohio Slavic and East European Newsletter

001 OSEEN initially will be published monthly, 12 issues per calendar year, one volume per year. Please contribute advance and timely notices concerning the following in the Slavic and East European Area: talks, lectures, meetings, conferences, films, performances, foreign visitations on campuses, exhibits, foreign study programs, exchange programs, new appointments, program developments, useful addresses, citations of language textbook reviews, audio-visual sources, curricular sources, library news, requests for assistance, offers to share resources, and other items of interest to the Ohio Slavic and East European professional areas.

002 Vedomosti (The News), Notes and News on Russian, Soviet and West European Language, Literature and Area Studies. A round-robin prepared and edited by the Department of Russian of Franklin and Marshall College. J. W. Frey, K. M. Kally, D. N. Nalywayko, editors. $1.00 per year. Make checks payable to Franklin and Marshall College. Correspondence: Dept. of Russian, Box 34, Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa. 17604.

003 Please send complete names and addresses of any individuals in Ohio who are working professionally in the Slavic and East European Area and who are not receiving OSEEN.

004 High School student and adult study tour to USSR. June 27-July 18, 1973 (21 days), Moscow-Volgograd-Tbilisi-Kiev-Leningrad (all on scheduled flights). Will meet Soviet students in Moscow and Leningrad. English is official language. Includes all basic expenses Cincinnati-USSR-Cincinnati. Students under 19 $790, adults $1,030. Deadline March 1, 1973. Contact Hanry Ziegler, Princeton H.S., 11080 Chester Rd., Cincinnati, Ohio 45246.

005 Please send information on any secondary school programs (semester or year) in Russian history. Include name of teacher, school, complete address, textbook, curricular materials, and syllabus if possible. Names, addresses and information will be shared among all respondents who indicate that they are teaching or are planning such a course.

006 Please send information about any firms or organizations in Ohio which conduct business dealings directly with the USSR.

007 Mr. William P. Orrick, American Field Service, USA-USSR Teacher Exchange, 313 East 43rd St., New York, N.Y. 10017.

Ohio Slavic and East European Newsletter

008 (Review) F. M. Borrás and R. F. Christian, Russian Syntax: Aspects of Modern Russian Syntax and Vocabulary, 2nd ed. New York: Oxford University Press, 1971, $13.00.

See: Robert A. Rothstein, Slavic and East European Journal, 16 (Summer, 1972), 251-255.

009 Ohio Modern Language Teachers Association annual meeting. March 30-31, 1973. Scot's Inn, Columbus, Ohio. Theme: "Alternatives: Dare to be different. Innovative aspects in teaching." Keynote speaker: Florence Steiner.

010 Ohio Chapter of AATSEEL spring meeting. March 31, 1973. Scot's Inn, Columbus, Ohio.

011 Ohio Slavic and East European Conference. March 31, 1973. Scot's Inn, Columbus, Ohio.

012 Battelle Memorial Institute in Columbus is expanding an existing indexing project and needs additional temporary translators, Russian to English. Also, there is a new project requiring translation into English from the following languages: Rumanian, Polish, German, Czech, Serbo-Croatian, and Bulgarian. Contact: Mr. James Swartz, Battelle Memorial Institute, (614) 299-3151 Ext. 2896.

013 The University of Illinois Foreign Language Newsletter. Published jointly by the Foreign Language Departments of the University of Illinois. Contact: Editor, FL Newsletter, 4080 FLB, Urbana, Ill. 61801.

014 Illinois High School Teachers of Russian Newsletter (IHSTOR Newsletter). Contact: Ms. Winifred Lamons, Hinsdale High School, 55th and Grant, Hinsdale, Ill. 60521.

015 American Comparative Literature Association. Publishes the journal Comparative Literature Studies. Membership: $10.00 yearly, $5.00 for students. Contact: Prof. Frederick Garber, Secretary - Treasurer ACLA, State University of New York, Binghamton, N.Y. 13901.

016 The Central States Conference on the Teaching of Foreign Languages. April 26-28, 1973. St. Paul, Minnesota. Theme: "The Foreign Language Teacher: Present and Future Tense." Contact: Anthony Gradisnik, Milwaukee Public Schools, P.O. Drawer 10K, Milwaukee, Wisc. 53201. Phone: (414) 475-8091.

017 Foreign language teachers from abroad for paid positions in U.S. schools (salary paid by local school, salary commensurate with qualifications and experience). Contact: Teacher Exchange Section, Institute of International Studies, Office of Education, U.S. Dept. of Health, Education and Welfare, Washington, D.C. 20202.

Ohio Slavic and East European Newsletter

018 Joseph Brodsky reading his poetry, Feb. 8, 1973, 12:00 noon (Feb. 9 if snow delays his arrival). Finney Chapel, Oberlin College. English translations to be read by David Young, Prof. of English at Oberlin. Free. Contact: Prof. Marjorie S. Hoover, Dept. of German and Russian, Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio 44074.

019 Lecture by Prof. George Y. Shevelov (Slavic Linguistics, Columbia Univ.). "To See the World in a Grain of Sand". April, 1973 at OSU. Contact: Slavic Dept. 1841 Millikin Rd. Columbus, Ohio 43210 (614) 422-6733.

020 Ohio High School Slavic Day, Thursday May 3, 1973 OSU. Tentative program may include a Russian film, FL career information, presentations by H.S. students, a Russian play, singing, a luncheon for teachers and counselors, tours of campus, and an informal Russian tea for teachers, H.S. students and the OSU Slavic Dept. faculty. Attendance in past years has ranged from about 500 to 700. Ohio H.S. teachers of Russian are invited along with their Russian students, school counselors and any other school staff members and parents. Program suggestions and offers to participate will be appreciated-the earlier the better. Ohio college Russian departments are cordially invited to send representatives and/or program information for prospective college students. Contact: Prof. Val Bolen, Program Chairman for Slavic Day, Slavic Dept., 1841 Millikin Rd., Columbus, Ohio 43210 (614) 422-9045 or -6733 (Dept. secretary).

021 In conjunction with the 150th Anniversary of the birthday of the 19th century Hungarian poet Alexander Petöfi (Jan. 1, 1823 - July 31, 1849) the Cleveland Public Library will display a travelling exhibit in the Spring on Petöfi, courtesy of the Hungarian Embassy.

022 Laszlo L. Kovacs offers to visit interested institutions to lecture on the 19th century Hungarian poet, Alexander Petöfi. Contact: Laszlo L. Kovacs, Head, History Dept., Cleveland Public Library, 325 Superior Ave., Cleveland, Ohio 44114. (216) 241-1020.

023 The History Dept. of the Cleveland Public Library has recently acquired a complete set of the Hungarian periodical Szazadok, 1867-1970.

024 Supplementary Russian language teaching materials. Contact: The Russian Packet, 5114 N. Charles St., Baltimore, Md., 21210.

Ohio Slavic and East European Newsletter

025 Russian Language Study at Leningrad State University, 1973 Summer Program. Sponsored by 18 U.S. colleges and universities. Prerequisite: at least two years of college-level Russian. Application deadline: Feb. 9, 1973. Contact: Council on International Educational Exchange, 777 United Nations Plaza, New York, N. Y., 10017.

026 The Northeast Conference on the Teaching of Foreign Languages, April 12-14, 1973 at the hotel Americana of New York. For preregistration forms and programs contact: Mrs. Nancy W. Lian, 320 Riverside Drive, New York, N.Y. 10025

027 The Russian Historical Collections of Miami University emphasize Russian military history of the Imperial Period and boast a fine series of Russian regimental histories numbering approximately 35 titles. For details contact: Prof. A. L. de Saint-Rat, P. O. Box 42, Oxford, Ohio 45056

028 The Ohio State University has three academic study tour programs during Spring Quarter, 1973 which include travel in the USSR: (1) Russian Language, (2) Russian Culture and Civilization, (3) Psychology, Psychiatry and Psychosomatic medicine in the USSR and Eastern Europe. Contact: Office of International Programs, 190 W. 19th Ave., Columbus, Ohio 43210. (614) 422-9136.

029 Professor Warren Lerner of Duke University, the author of Karl Radek: The Last Internationalist and the forthcoming Revolution from Without: Soviet Russia's Quest for a Red Poland, will give lectures at Miami University: on February 27, 1973 (Oxford Campus, 7:30 p.m. in Shideler Hall) and February 28, 1973 (Hamilton Campus, 11:00 a.m.). The general topic of his lectures will be "Socialist Internationalism and National Identity: The Inherent Crisis of European Marxism." Contact: Prof. Bruce W. Menning, Dept. of History, Miami University, Oxford, Ohio 45056. (513) 529-5121.

030 The Center for Slavic and East European Studies at OSU is sponsoring a symposium on the Soviet Population Crisis, April 13, 1973, 9 a.m. - 3 p.m. at the Ohio Union. Further details will be available later. Contact: Prof. George Demko, Dept. of Geography, 1775 S. College Rd., Columbus, Ohio 43210. (614) 422-0584, or Prof. Warren Eason, Dept. of Economics, 1775 S. College Rd. Columbus, Ohio 43210. (614) 422-6298.

031 Mr. James B. Powers offers to answer personal inquiries concerning his experiences as a participant in the 8th USA-USSR Teacher Exchange (see entry #007 for AFS address). He indicates that placement is no longer limited to Moscow and Leningrad. Contact: Mr. James B. Powers, Indian Hill High School, 6845 Drake Rd., Indian Hill, Ohio 45243. (513) 561-4225 Ext. 40.

Ohio Slavic and East European Newsletter

032 Prof. Albert Parry, Professor Emeritus of Russian Civilization and Culture, Colgate University, will present two public lectures, at Ohio State University on February 1, 1973. The lectures are sponsored by the Center for Slavic and East European Studies, The Slavic Club, and the Center for International Studies: at 3:00 p.m. in the Faculty Lounge of the Dieter Cunz Hall of Languages, a lecture in Russian entitled: "Sovetskiy Sojuz na Dvukh Vostokakh: Na Dal'nem i Blizhnem: Sovetsko-Kitajsko-Arabskie Otnosheniya"; At 7:45 p.m. in Room 100 Hagerty Hall: "The Latest Politics of Samizdat: Russia's Underground Literature". Contact: Prof. Leon I. Twarog, Slavic Dept. 1841 Millikin Rd., Columbus, Ohio 43210 (614) 422-6733.

033 The University of Illinois announces the 1973 Illinois Summer Research Laboratory on Russia and Eastern Europe. Twenty associateships are offered for visiting faculty and graduate students. For application forms and information contact: Prof. Benjamin Uroff, Research Director, Russian and East European Center, University of Illinois, 1208 W. California St., Urbana, Ill. 61801.

034 The OSU Slavic Club will present the film Fate of a Man with Russian dialog and English subtitles on Saturday Feb. 3, 1973 at 8:00 p.m. in Hitchcock Auditorium (at 19th and Neil Ave.). Free.

035 The OSU Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures will sponsor "Slavic Night" on Friday Jan. 26, 1973 at 7:30 p.m. at the United Christian Center, 66 E. 15th Ave., Columbus, Ohio. The program will include a play in Russian produced by OSU students, Slavic music, and folk dancing. Food (Slavic and American) and refreshments will be served. Free. Advance notice of intention to attend is requested. Contact: Prof. Val Bolen (614) 422-9045 or the Slavic Dept. secretary at (614) 422-6733.

Deadline for February Newsletter is Feb. 9, 1973!!

The further ahead of time we receive the announcement - the better!! R.